

National Careers Week

The children have thoroughly enjoyed Careers week, learning about different roles that they can aspire to when they grow up.

We have been very lucky to have speakers from a variety of roles and different businesses; an electrician, a bricklayer, a 999 operator, a farmer, a second mate to Captain, head chef/food technology student and a speaker from Google. We also had pizza making from Silvana who is Maes y Llan's very own chef!

A special mention goes to the parents; Samii Noden-Poli a website designer, Dave Jones from JCB, Shane Jones an illustrator.

It is so important that we fill children with hopes, dreams and aspirations and we hope this week has helped to do this. Thank you again to all who were involved in Ysgol Maes-y-Llan's Careers Week! Diolch!
